National Republic Day Celebration

Objective:

- 1) To honour the Constitution of India came into effect from 26th Jan. 1950

Outcome:

- 1) All volunteers would respect the Indian Constitution & its preamble.

Summary on National Republic Day Celebration

Like every year, this year, also all the students and faculty members of our S.S.T College had organized a grand program on the occasion of this Republic Day.

Everyone was feeling very happy that day because it was a matter of great pride for all of us because on 26 January 1950 the constitution of India came into force and our country, India became a republic.

The program started with prayer at 8:00 am. After that, parade and flag hoisting took place on the college ground. Chairman and Founder Principal, Dr. J. C. Purswani hoisted the national flag and gave a motivational speech on the topic "Youth Power". This was followed by some speeches on patriotism and singing the national anthem.

Many students also did different types of programs. On that day the campus of college was decorated by the NSS Volunteers with charts, models, slogans, and poems. Pictures that depict the development of India from independence. A the program was concluded by distributing sweet boxes to all the students. On the occasion of Republic Day Celebration, the total number of 30 volunteers participated in program

On the occasion of Gandhi Jayanti, Department of Arts organized a webinar on Gandhian thought for all the BA students on 3rd Oct 2020, at 12 pm on the Google meet platform. The link for the webinar was shared 15 minutes before the webinar with the students. Mr Sanjay Partole welcomed and gave a brief introduction of the guest, Mr Sambhaji khandekar to the students.

At the beginning of the session, Mr Sambhaji khandekar made the participants realize how Character Building is becoming a challenge in today's higher educational institutions. So, with the aim of inculcating the value of education in the students, Mr Sambhaji khandekar explained the relevance of Mahatma Gandhi's principles in the present-day world. While talking about Gandhiji's Views and perceptions on social, economic and political issues, Mr Sambhaji khandekar stressed the unique attitude and character of Gandhi, which helped him to achieve his goals and targets. Mr Sambhaji khandekar was much concerned about grooming the youth as cultured citizens, cherishing national ethos and building responsible, sensitive, creative, and thoughtful citizens with national and international perspectives. Appreciating his efforts, Mr. Tushar Wakse thanked the guest, Mr Sambhaji khandekar and ended the seminar.

Summary Report

Despite the fact that the date of the constitution was 26th November, 2019, the Department of Arts held the Indian Constitution Day Celebration on 2nd December, 2019, since internal exams were scheduled for the last week of November. The program's goal was to instill constitutional obligations in students, raise awareness about the constitution, and to educate students about the symbolic importance of Constitution Day. The program began at 11:00 a.m. The embellished portrait of the constitution and the Indian constitution's preamble was displayed. Vice Principal & IQAC Head Dr. Khushbu Purswani, was welcomed by Prof. Sambhaji Khandekar (HOD of the Department of Political Science). In her speech, Madam highlighted the importance of the day as well as the history of the Constitution Day Celebration. Asst. Prof. Sachin Wayle, Faculty, read the Indian constitution's preamble and assisted the students in comprehending its meaning. The significance of Constitution Day was recognized by students and other participants. Asst. Prof. Tushar Wakse delivered the vote of thanks. The event concluded with the playing of the National Anthem.

Summary Report:

The Department of Arts had organized the National Voters Day Celebration on 25th Jan 2019 at the college premises. The main objective of the day is to educate and encourage young voters to vote during elections.

The program started at 11:00 am. Asst. Prof. Sambhaji Khandekar, HoD of the Department of Political Science welcomed the Chief Guest of the event, Dr Khushboo Purswani, IQAC Head, SST college. Dr. Khushboo addressed the students about the relevance and importance of celebrating this day and encouraged them to participate in the electoral process. Asst. Prof. Sambhaji Khandekar, encouraged the electoral participation by disseminating information about electoral processes. In his speech, he highlighted the significance of the voters' day and the history of voters' day. The purpose of the celebration is to inculcate constitutional obligations and to encourage staff and students to franchise their vote. Asst. Prof. Sachin Wayle, read the voter's day pledge and helped the participants to take pledge to uphold the democratic traditions of our country and the dignity of free, fair and peaceful elections, and to vote in every election fearlessly and without being influenced by considerations of religion, race, caste, community, language or any other inducement. Asst. Prof. Tushar Wakse Thanked the chief guest and all the participants and ended the programme.

SUMMARY

A Seminar on 'Consumer Rights & Investor Awareness' was organized on 18th August, 2018 by the Student Council of S.S.T College of Arts & Commerce. The seminar was conducted by representatives from consumer Guidance society of India (CGSI) - Mr T.Y.Pandey, Mr. Pawar and Mrs.Geeta Gangwani. The Keynote speakers highlighted the Importance of Consumer, to Protect & Educate the Indian Consumers about Sub-Standard Products & Services, Exorbitant Prices, Short Weights & Measures and a host of other problems. Mr. T.Y. Pandey informed about Consumer's Protection Act and gave directions related to Consumer's Problems. Maharashtra Consumers can call the Toll-free number 1800-22-22-62 or send e-mail to mah.helpline@gmail.com to seek information, advice or guidance for their day to day consumer problems. The program concluded with the closing remark of 'Jago Grahak Jago' by experts. Students participants got the certificates from CGSI in collaboration with NSE. Total participants who attended the seminar were 110.
