SUMMARY REPORT

Aashadhi Ekadashi' is one of the major festivals celebrated in the state of Maharashtra in India in worship of Lord Vithoba or 'Vitthala' as he is lovingly addressed by his devotees. The devotees from the states of Maharashtra and Goa thronged Prasanthi Nilayam to celebrate Aashadhi Ekadashi at the lotus feet of their Lord Vitthal. It is a festival of religious procession which is celebrated during the month of June-July, as per the Marathi Calendar, it is Aashadh Shukla Paksha. People consider the two eleventh days, Ekadashi, of every month to be of special significance. And the eleventh day (Bright) of Aashadh is known as the Maha(great) Ekadashi. We celebrate this festival in the form of promoting the tree plantation and giving a message to the people by carrying out a procession known as VrikshaDindi in the style of tradition of DINDI (WARI).

Hi

Greetings of the day

I would like to take the opportunity to introduce you to Kotak Education Foundation. Kotak Education Foundation (KEF), is an initiative in the field of education started in April 2007 by Mr. Uday Kotak, (Executive Vice Chairman and Managing Director - Kotak Mahindra Bank) & Mr. Shivaji Dam (Former Director - Kotak Mahindra Bank) as the promoters.

WHAT IS UNNATI?

Unnati is one of the interventions of the Kotak Education Foundation. It is a livelihood programme to train and mentor the 18-30 years old youth who have dropped out of school or college due to financial, personal or academic challenges; completed graduation but still unemployed due to lack of soft skills / technical skills. A vision to support them to be 'better employable' and rise above the poverty line, in order to lead a life with dignity, is the driving force behind Unnati's tireless efforts. Since its inception, Unnati has trained 10,000+ aspirants and assisted in providing them jobs in well known organisations all across Mumbai.

UNNATI - Vocational training programme.

The training includes a) Building technical skills - Banking, Financial Services, Insurance, Customer Relations, Sales b) Building Soft skills -such as Communicative English, Basic IT, Personality Development and Life Skills. The curriculum is a combination of interactive sessions including industry experts, practical exposure through role-plays & situational awareness.

VISION UNNATI:

We want our aspirants: To be well-groomed, self-confident and able to interact with others. To be aware and reassured that despite having quit academics, they can acquire the right skills and attitude to pursue a worthwhile career. To know the basics of goal-setting and how to achieve them. To acquire life-skills and thereby the attitude to focus upon taking up a job. To become capable of earning a living with dignity. To understand available opportunities and define their direction in life. To have acquired basic knowledge in at least one particular domain. MARATHI BHASHA DIWAS

Objectives:

1. To understand the importance of Marathi Language
2. To develop aesthetic sense for poetry.
3. To develop event management skills.

Outcomes:

1. Students understood the origin & History of Marathi Language
2. Students presented poems in Marathi Language
3. Students learned how to organise an event.

SUMMARY REPORT

On 27th February, 2020 students of BMM/BAMMC along with the faculty members took the initiative to organise 'Rajyastariy Kavi Sammelan'(State Level Poetry convention)

Nowadays, as English-mixed Marathi language is spoken, the Barakhadi (alphabets in Marathi) is also being forgotten, so they had made a Barakhadi tree near the entrance. The names of writers from Sant Dnyaneshwar to P.L.Deshpande were written on the balloons in the hall where the poetry convention was held.

The founder Principal of the College, Dr. Purswani Sir and Chief Guest Sagar Nimbalkar, a well known poet lit the lamp. After that, despite the principal being a non Marathi speaker himself, he gave an excellent speech in fluent and pure Marathi language. In his speech, he also reminded that one should do something as a symbol of love for one's mother tongue and save it.

After that the poetry convention started. The meeting was divided into open groups and college groups. Many participated enthusiastically.

In the open group, poets from Chembur, Vikhroli to Titwala and Boisar participated. Most importantly, a 75-year-old grandfather named Ravindra Sonawane from Titwala was present and set a new standard of inspiration by inspiring the youth by presenting poetry. More than 22 students from Joshi Bedekar College to Bharat College participated in the college group.

In this poetry convention, many excellent poems were presented on various subjects from the farmers suicides in Vidarbha to the condition of Mumbai and from love to even separation. Overwhelmed by this poetic presentation, the faculty member of the college Anil Teling also presented Padgaonkar's poem 'Sanga kaseJagayache' (Tell me how to live). Apart from this, faculty Manisha Agale also presented a poem composed by her when she was 12 years old.

B.A.M.M.C Coordinator Asst.Prof. Deepak Gavade guided the students to organize the event. Asst.Prof. ManishaWarungase, Asst.Prof. RajaniKuche helped for the success.

SUMMARY REPORT

Indian festivals nowadays are no more associated with just 'holidays' for college students. Quite a few festivals are being celebrated with great enthusiasm and fanfare on the campuses. On Makar Sankranti today, whether it is flying kites or gorging on the sumptuous tilgulladoo or coming together, various activities have been chalked out by the collegians to mark the festival on campus. Being cautious

Over the years, Makar Sankranti and kites have become synonymous to each other. After all, it is also called the festival of kites. In fact, kite flying competition is one of the most awaited activities for the collegians. "We not just fly kites but also decorate them with eco-friendly waste materials. Also, plastic kites and Chinese manjha are a strict no-no in our college." Realising this fact that the Chinese manjha not only poses threat to humans, birds or animals but also to the environment, SST College has also chosen traditional treads over thrill. Kite flying was one of the major attractions enjoyed by everyone. Even our reluctant learners were willing to give it a try. A warm breezy morning made the experience even more enjoyable. It was a sight to behold as the children raced up and down the field with cheerful faces, closely followed by a rainbow of kites trailing behind them and Sunita Tai and Ms Cynthia trying to capture these moments.

SUMMARY REPORT

During this session the activity – Job Fair, a simulation exercise which was conducted for the sixth semester students to train them holistically for the interview process. Various topics were discussed such as group discussion, resume writing and personal interviews to ensure that students are trained on all aspects.

As per the design of the activity, class was divided into groups and each group represents an established name in the industry. In the session on resume writing, the trainer discusses the do's and don'ts of resume writing with the students on the basis of which students prepare their resumes, which is revised as per the trainer's suggestions.

Derived from the concept of '7 habits of Highly Effective people' by Stephen Covey, a small discussion was conducted in the classroom to help students understand HR psychology and the objective behind various questions asked in an interview. With this workshop, trainers aimed to ensure that students developed an understanding of what should and should not be said in an interview. Mock interviews were conducted in the classroom and students were given feedback based on their performances.

Later each team split further. One half of the groups behaved like an interviewing panel and the other half got interviewed by the other groups. After a successful interview, the interview panel issued an offer-letter to the candidate. Should a candidate procure three such offer-letters, he/she was eligible to go for another round of the interview with the trainers. Once all the interviewees had been interviewed, they swapped places with the interviewers, and the procedure was repeated.

MAKAR SANKRANTI

SUMMARY REPORT

Makar Sankranti is a Hindu festival celebrated all over India in many different ways on the 14th day of January. The day marks the end of the month with the winter solstice and the start of longer days. Sankranti celebrations cannot possibly be deemed complete without making and sharing 'Tilgul', a mixture of Jaggery and sesame seeds with friends and family, as many people in Maharashtra do, to mark the day. We hope that experiencing different aspects of the festival have encouraged our learners to be open-minded, tolerant and respectful towards each other, embrace differences and cherish similarities in their beliefs and cultures. Kite flying was one of the major attractions enjoyed by everyone. Even our reluctant learners were willing to give it a try. A warm breezy morning made the experience even more enjoyable. It was a sight to behold as the children raced up and down the field with cheerful faces, closely followed by a rainbow of kites trailing behind.
