CERTIFICATE COURSE

MANAGEMENT INFORMATION SYSTEM

Objective:- The objective of a Management Information System (MIS) is to provide individuals with the knowledge and skills necessary to effectively design, develop, implement, and manage information systems that support managerial decision-making and enhance organizational performance .The course aims to provide a comprehensive understanding of MIS principles, processes, and technologies.   .

ABOUT THE COURSE

The certificate course in Management Information Systems (MIS) offered by the college provides students with a comprehensive understanding of the role of information systems in managing and supporting business operations. The course aims to equip students with the knowledge and skills necessary to effectively utilize technology and information systems to enhance organizational efficiency and decision-making.

LEARNING OUTCOME

By the end of the course student shall be able

Upon completing the Management Information System course, students should have a comprehensive understanding of MIS principles, processes, and technologies. They should be able to design, implement, and manage information systems that provide accurate, timely, and relevant information for managerial decision-making. Additionally, participants should be equipped to address challenges related to data security, user adoption, and ethical considerations within an MIS context.

Course Code :- CCBMMI001

Duration of the course:-
32 Hours

Eligibility :-Any student learning in a first year degree programme of any stream.

Medium of Instruction :-
English

Syllabus (Course Content) :-

Introduction to Management Information System (MIS)
Business & Designing Information System
Information and System Concept
Decision Support System & Development of MIS