Awareness programme on 'Organ Donation'

On the occasion of 'World Organ Day (13th Aug.)' Department of Arts had organized an Awareness Programme on 'Organ Donation' on 14th Aug. 2017. Due to a lack of awareness, there are myths and fears in people's minds about organ donation. The aim of the programme was to motivate normal human beings to pledge to donate organs after death and to spread awareness about the importance of organ donation. At 10.30 am, sharp. The programme started with a lamp lighting ceremony by the chief guest of the programme Adv. Shrikant Apte, Mumbai high court and Dr. J. C. Purswani, chairman of the college. Asst. Prof. Smita Jagtap welcomed and gave a brief introduction of the guest. Dr. J. C. Purswani sir gave a brief about the importance of organ donation.

At the starting of the programme Adv. Shrikant explained that Organ donation is donating organs like the heart, liver, kidneys, intestines, lungs, and pancreas, after death, for the purpose of transplanting them into another person who is in need of an organ. After that, he highlighted the point that donating organs gives us a strong positive feeling and makes us good, noble people by saving someone's life. One who donates an organ receives the blessings from people and Almighty.

At the end of the programme, Asst. Prof. Tushar Wakse thanked the guest and requested each and every participant present in the programme to donate an organ, due to which someone's life can be saved and ended the programme

One Day Workshop - Self Defense

The Department of Arts had organized a One-Day Workshop on Self Defense for all the girl students. The need of the hour for the girls and women in the society is to safeguard themselves against violence committed against them. It is felt that college can strengthen the girl students for their self-protection and women empowerment through a workshop of self-defense

The workshop was held on 16th Jan. 2018 at 10.30 am in the college. The workshop started at 10.30 am sharp. A lamp lighting ceremony was held after welcoming the guests. Asst. Prof. Tushar Wakse gave a brief introduction of the guest Asst. Prof. Sachin Patil and Dr. J. C. Purswani, chairman of the college, to the participants. Dr. J. C. Purswani highlighted the key points why such kinds of workshops are required to sensitize our girl child/students to self-protect themselves in public places as well as at home. He also pointed out that this is the demand of the hour as we can relate ourselves to the news items of domestic violence, eve-teasing cases and other severe forms of violence against women and children which is pouring in on a day-to-day basis.

After the inaugural speech of the chairman sir, the workshop was handed over to Asst. Prof. Sachin Patil. Overall workshop based on the practical activity. Students participants got different self-protection tips on how to avoid/defend by attacking a potential attacker by using objects or by striking on the soft spots of the attacker, when subjected to physical abuse, violence, crime, etc. then The students have the chance to see the live demo of the self-defense techniques as demonstrated by the trainer and the companion cadets. After Asst. Prof. Smita Jagtap thanked to guest, and ended the workshop.
