Orientation Programme for NSS volunteers

Summary Report

No. of Participant: - 189

Date: 8th July 2018

The NSS (National Service Scheme) unit of SST College of Arts and Commerce organized an Orientation Programme on 8th July 2018. The event aimed to familiarize students with the NSS and its various activities, as well as highlight the role of NSS in shaping their personalities. The program was well-received, with a total of 189 students in attendance.

The Orientation Programme commenced with the ceremonial lighting of the lamp, symbolizing the enlightenment of knowledge. Following this, a rendition of Saraswati Vandana, a traditional prayer to the goddess of learning, was performed. These rituals set the tone for an intellectually stimulating and spiritually enriching session.

A notable presence at the Orientation Programme was NSS District Coordinator, Shri Jeevan Vichare. His presence added immense value to the event, given his extensive experience in the NSS domain. Mr. Jeevan Vichare delivered an informative session, covering various aspects of NSS, including its objectives, different activities, and the significance of completing the designated 120 and 240 hours of service in NSS.

Overall, the Orientation Programme organized by the NSS unit of SST College of Arts and Commerce proved to be a resounding success. It effectively acquainted students with the essence of NSS and highlighted its significance in the holistic development of their personalities. The event not only inspired students to actively participate in NSS activities but also instilled in them a sense of social responsibility and a desire to contribute to the welfare of society. Principal Dr. J C Puruswani encouraged students by some motivation stories to join NSS for social work. NSS PO Anil Telinga gave vote of thanks and concluded the programme.

MAHA WALKATHON

Summary Report

No. of Participant: - 77

On 18th November 2018, SST College of Arts and Commerce organized a walkathon in collaboration with their NSS (National Service Scheme) unit. The event witnessed an impressive turnout of more than 77 students from the college, all eager to contribute to a noble cause and promote road safety. The walkathon was led by NSS PO Asst. Anil Teling, along with other dedicated staff members of SST College.

The primary objective of the walkathon was to raise awareness about road safety and its significance in our daily lives. The NSS unit, in collaboration with the college, aimed to spread the message of responsible driving and pedestrian safety to the participants as well as the wider community.

The event commenced at a designated starting point, where the enthusiastic participants gathered early in the morning. Banners and placards carrying messages advocating responsible driving and adherence to traffic rules were also prominently displayed.

The walkathon attracted attention from the local community, as the participants marched energetically, creating a vibrant atmosphere with their chants and slogans.

The NSS unit of SST College, in coordination with local organizations, had arranged for informative pamphlets and brochures on road safety to be distributed among the spectators and bystanders. These materials contained essential tips, guidelines, and statistics to educate the public about the importance of following traffic rules and responsible driving practices.

The walkathon concluded with a gathering at the college campus, where participants, staff, and faculty members reflected on the success of the event. NSS PO Asst. Anil Teling expressed his gratitude towards the enthusiastic participation of the students and the collaborative efforts of the college staff. He encouraged the students to continue their endeavors in spreading awareness about road safety and becoming responsible citizens.

Overall, the walkathon organized by SST College of Arts and Commerce NSS unit on 18th November 2018 proved to be a significant success. It brought together over 500 students who actively participated in raising awareness about road safety. The event left a lasting impact on the participants as well as the community, emphasizing the importance of responsible driving and pedestrian safety.

150th Gandhi Jayanti Programme

Summary Report

No of Participant:- 42

On the occasion of the 150th Birth Anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi, the NSS Unit organized a grand celebration of Gandhi Jayanti on 2nd October 2018 at the SST College campus. The event aimed to commemorate the life and teachings of the great leader, Mahatma Gandhi, and promote his ideals of peace, non-violence, and social harmony.

A total of 42 enthusiastic volunteers actively participated in the celebration. Under the guidance of NSS PO Reena Mishra and Mr. Mayur Mathur, the event began with a Bhajan Sandhya Programme. The volunteers showcased their devotion and love for Mahatma Gandhi by singing bhajans that were composed by the great leader himself. These bhajans not only reflected the spiritual essence but also conveyed the principles of truth, simplicity, and love that Gandhi propagated throughout his life.

The venue, SST College campus, provided a serene environment that enhanced the solemnity of the occasion. The decorations were minimal yet meaningful, focusing on symbols associated with Gandhi's philosophy, such as the spinning wheel, peace symbols, and quotes inspiring social change.

Overall, the 150th Birth Anniversary celebration of Mahatma Gandhi was a momentous event that paid tribute to the life and legacy of one of the greatest leaders of all time. The enthusiastic participation of 42 volunteers and the guidance provided by NSS PO Reena Mishra ensured the success of the event. It served as a reminder to follow Gandhi's footsteps in promoting peace, harmony, and equality in society.

Van Bhandhara Construction

Summary Report

Date: 28-12-2018

Location: Adopted village Ghoteghar Tal. Shahapur

No of students participated: 44

On 28-12-2018, National Service Scheme (NSS) volunteers undertook a significant mission of constructing a 25ft Van Bandhara (check dam) in the village of Ghoteghar Tal. Shahapur as part of their efforts towards underwater conservation.

The mission aimed to address the pressing issue of water scarcity in the region and promote sustainable water management practices. The construction of the Van Bandhara was a collaborative effort by dedicated NSS volunteers who worked tirelessly to complete the project. The 25ft Van Bandhara serves as a barrier to impound rainwater, allowing it to be collected and retained for future use. This method helps recharge groundwater levels, replenishing wells and other water sources in the area.

The construction process involved careful planning and execution. NSS volunteers demonstrated their skills and commitment, working in coordination to ensure the dam's stability and durability. They utilized locally available materials and adhered to engineering standards to create a reliable structure.

The efforts of NSS volunteers have been highly appreciated by the local community and authorities. The Van Bandhara construction project stands as a testament to the positive impact that collective action and community engagement can have on water conservation.
