Competitive Exam Training Camp Summary Report

Date: 24th May 2019 to 30th May 2019

No of students participated: 77

Asmita Foundation, in association with SST College of Arts and Commerce, organised a State Level Residential Camp from 24th May 2019 to 30th May 2019 at Prakash Bhoir Farm House, Mhaskal Gaon, Goveli-Titwala Road, Titwala. 77 poor, needy and promising students from various districts and rural areas of Maharashtra, participated in this camp. The chief guest at the inauguration of this residential camp was Kalyan- Bhiwandi Taluka Ex. Sarpanch and Secretary of Deva Group Foundation, Shri. Tanaji More. Prof. Jeevan Vichare worked with the students to make them mentally strong through Pranayama and meditation. He also taught them self-defense through simple techniques. Shri Vishwas Patil, former IAS Officer, author of Panipat Novel, while addressing the students, said that there should be no doubt in the mind while studying for the competitive exam. You can succeed in competitive exams only if your intention and your goal is clear. Mr. Mansingh Patil, API from Palghar - Vikramgad, enlightened the students on how to have a positive mindset. Prof. Dinesh Gupta effectively guided students on how to boost their confidence while studying for competitive exams. Mr. Jayesh Korde, Mental Health Specialist, Nagpur, gave guidance on how to maintain good mental health. Editor of Chitralkha (Dadar), Shri. Gyanesh Maharao, mentored students regarding the aspects of a pleasant personality. Shri Anoop Singh, Ex-Officer of Indian Navy, delivered a beautiful lecture on "Leadership Skills". IBN Lokmat Branch Manager, Shri. Deepak Khanolkar, interacted with the students on the topic of personality development. Such a seven-day special residential camp benefited various students from rural areas of Maharashtra. The guidance sessions of many experienced and expert senior resource persons were highly informative. The National Service Scheme Department of SST College of Arts and College made valuable contributions by extending a helping hand to make this camp a success.

Total number of 118 NSS Volunteers (69 Boys, 49 girls) and 03 Programme Officers had participated in Leadership Training Camp from 16th August 2019 to 20th August 2019. At Mhaskal village, Prakash Bhoir Farmhouse, Titwala, Taluka - Kalyan, District - Thane. The chief organizers were Mr. Jeevan Vichare (District Coordinator, Thane District), Mr. Sudhir Puranik (Director of NSS, University of Mumbai) and Dr. J. C. Purswani, (Founder Principal, S.S.T. College of Arts & Commerce). This Leadership Training Programme was continued up to five days, its description has been as following ways:

DAY – 1

The first day began with the new faces of young leaders from various Colleges in Thane District under NSS. The morning started with registration formalities. The Inaugural function was started by the honourable dynamic personalities Dr. J. C. Purswani (Founder Principal of S.S.T. College of Arts & Commerce), Shri. Ramesh Deokar (Program officer, University, NSS cell) & Dr. Padmaja Arvind (Principal, SIA College of Higher Education, Dombivali), Dr. Mahesh Bhiwandikar (Founder Achievers College, Kalyan). The first session was started on Financial Structure & Accounts of NSS by Mr. Ramesh Deokar (Program Officer University of Mumbai NSS Cell). All the NSS volunteers enriched with knowledge of NSS administrative structure which comprises NSS Administration,

All work and no play make Jack a dull boy

Next session was started by Mr. Harshal Suryawanshi who guided the NSS volunteers on how to perform effective Street Play/Skit on current issues. Street play is the most important NSS activity to create awareness in the society with the essence of humour. The young leaders showed incredible acting & linguistic skills. Then the Origin, History & Philosophy of NSS was introduced by Mr. Ninad Kasale (Area Coordinator) where the students were motivated as; "Be the change you want to see in the World."

DAY – 2

The Second day began with Assembly, Yoga, and Prayer & Self-Defence which enabled the students to remain active all day long. The basic topic was introduced on Personality Development which is very much essential in every work of life by Dr. Kiran Pariya (Bandodkar College). Then Dr. Anis Choudhary (G.M. Momin College, Bhiwandi) discussed about skill & joint activities with government Organizations & NGOs etc. Later, Mr. Shivaji Naik (Area Coordinator) had an amazing session on Aims & Objectives of NSS, Emblem, Motto, Code & Conduct for Volunteers & Other Details where the students were nourished with the knowledge of every purpose of NSS & allied necessities to work effectively for the society. Afterwards, Mr. Sushil Shinde (District Coordinator Mumbai Western Suburban) spoke on the topic to become powerful leaders in the future. Then, Mr. Pradeep Singh (The Destination Academy) discussed about the various career opportunities after NSS. Further, Ms. Bhagyashree Pawar (Area Coordinator) shared her knowledge about Camp Activities where she discussed the format to carry out activities during the camp right from pre-planning, organizing & execution. Then the students were given preparatory time for Street Play & Report Writing. Every day student were participated in the Feedback session of the day's activities.

DAY – 3

The third day began with Assembly, Yoga, and Prayer & Self-Defence which enabled the students to remain active all day long. The basics were clear about NSS, so the new aroma & zeal of Regular NSS activities was discussed by Mr. Deepak Ponkshe (Area Coordinator). Here the students learnt the actual types of activities & why these activities are important to fulfill the motto of NSS - "Not Me but You" Later on, Dr. Satish Kolte (NSS District Co-ordinator Mumbai City), discussed about the awards in NSS & how to prepare proposals of volunteers & programme officer. The students were guided with the best content knowledge via experiential learning.

"It is better to be safe than sorry."

Mr. Ganesh S. Sule (Safety Trainer) came up with his remarkable practical knowledge in the field of Fire-Safety & Self-Safety in emergency cases where the students got to know how to rescue others & themselves in such unwanted critical situations. Further the students were introduced with the challenges of Armed Forces Exam & how to overcome those hurdles by Ms. Vinita Hublikar (Assistant Professor Mutha College). Then Mr. Bhupendra Mishra (IG Awardee) had an interactive session with LTP leaders in the form of innovative singing conveying the various problems in the society.

DAY – 4

The fourth day began with the most energetic & motivating personality Mr. Jeevan Vichare, (Vice Principal SST College) (Thane District Coordinator), where he had discussed about hurdles in cracking UPSC & MPSC Exams by sharing his personal life experiences. The students were highly motivated by the session. Co-ordination between the leader and the Program Officer is very important to carry out the NSS activities effectively. So Ms. Renu Vijay Verma (Area Coordinator, Asst. Prof. S.I.A. College, Dombivli) spread her knowledge about the Role of NSS Leader for assisting Program Officer for having an effective impact on the society. Further, Mr. Ravi Patil (President of Yash Foundation) had an interactive session with the students on social issues in the community work where the students got to know about the pros & cons in the community work & how to face challenges. Later Mr. Anoop Singh (Ex Indian Navy Officer, Mechanical Engineer) came up with the powerpack interactive session on Goal Setting where the students were motivated with the necessity of having the goals along with the attributes like focus, patience, strong will power & confidence etc to be successful in life. Then Ms. Sandhya Thakar (Asst. Prof. S.I.A. College, Dombivli) resolved the difficulties of students while using the modern technology for maintaining various records to have hassle free access by using powerpoint presentation & enriched the students with easy retention of records for any activity. Since it was the second last day of the camp so there were some cultural activities like Street Play Competition, Dancing, Singing, Poem Recitation, Drama, Mono Acting & some other talents etc where students enjoyed a lot. Then Bonfire was there where the Management Committee Volunteers surprised the students with their Creative Dress-ups as Tribal Adivasis.

DAY- 5

Later, Mr. Swapnil Nalawade (Film Making & Event Management Expert) guided the students with various expertises in the field of film industry & event management. The students enjoyed the session with various rhythms of songs played on the musical instruments. The management committee volunteers & organizers involved during LTP were felicitated with the eco-friendly token of appreciation. Then all the students were honoured with participation certificates. All the moments were captured in the camera. The Leadership Training Programme was indeed a disciplined learning experience & a memorable event forever in the lives of young minds to be the greatest leaders leading the world. As our dynamic mentor Dr. J.C. Purswani rightly related with Newton's Third Law - "Every action has its equal & opposite reaction." Similarly, if we work selflessly for the society, the energy magnifies & magical reactions will greet you blissfully.

The S.S.T. College would like to thank Mr. Sudhir Puranik, NSS Director, and University of Mumbai for giving an opportunity to host the Leadership Training Programme. The college also likes to extend its gratitude to Mr. Ramesh Deokar, NSS coordinator, University of Mumbai. Special thanks to Dr. J. C. Purswani (Founder Principal of S.S.T. College of Arts & Commerce, Ulhasnagar) who accepted the opportunity to organise the Leadership Training Programme and also provided all the resources needed for smoothly conducting the camp. Also, we are thankful to Vice Principal Prof. Bharati Purswani who made every effort to see that all the things are in place to conduct this camp smoothly. Last but not the least, this camp would not have been possible without the dynamic and energetic leaders, All District Coordinator, Thane District and Programme Officer Mr. Anil Teling, Mr. Mayur Mathur who played a very significant role in organising the camp and making it a grand success and the SST College NSS Volunteers who had directly or indirectly played a vital role in making the camp successful.

Library Setup at Adopted Village Mhaskal

No. of Participant : 22

The much-anticipated inauguration ceremony of the library at Mumbai University Adopted School, located in Mhaskal Village, Titwala, took place with great enthusiasm and joy. The event was graced by esteemed personalities, including Dr. J. C. Purswani, Ms. Annie Anthony, Dr. Sangeeta Naik, and Dr. G.K. Gupta, who played vital roles as mentors in the development of the school.

The ceremony commenced with an invocation of blessings, followed by a warm welcome to the distinguished guests. Dr. J. C. Purswani, the esteemed founder principal of S.S.T. College of Arts & Commerce in Ulhasnagar, inaugurated the library with his blessed hands, symbolizing the significance of knowledge and education in empowering young minds.

Ms. Annie Anthony, the renowned principal of L.D. Sonawane College in Kalyan, addressed the gathering and emphasized the importance of reading and cultivating a love for books among students. Her insightful words inspired both students and teachers to utilize the library as a valuable resource for learning and personal growth.

Dr. Sangeeta Naik, the respected principal of Achievers College in Kalyan, shared her thoughts on the role of libraries in fostering a holistic education environment. She highlighted the transformative power of books and encouraged students to explore various genres to broaden their horizons.

Dr. G.K. Gupta, the esteemed principal of Seva Sadan College of Arts, Commerce & Science, delivered a motivating speech, urging students to make the most of the library's facilities and embrace a lifelong passion for learning. He emphasized the need for continuous education beyond textbooks and classroom instruction.

The inauguration ceremony marked the beginning of a new chapter for the Mumbai University Adopted School, as the library now stands as a beacon of knowledge and learning. The event concluded with a vote of thanks to all the dignitaries, teachers, students, and staff who contributed to the success of the ceremony. The library is now open to students, providing them with a diverse collection of books, reference materials, and educational resources. It is hoped that this new addition will significantly enhance the educational experience of the students and foster a love for reading and research.

The Inauguration Ceremony of the library at Mumbai University Adopted School was a significant milestone, made possible through the unwavering dedication and support of Dr. J. C. Purswani, Ms. Annie Anthony, Dr. Sangeeta Naik, and Dr. G.K. Gupta. Their invaluable contributions and guidance will undoubtedly leave a lasting impact on the students and the school community as a whole.

Education for Drop out Students

Venue: SST College of Arts & Commerce

Date: 8/10/2019

No of participants: 39

A survey was conducted by NSS volunteers in the adopted village of Maneregaon and a nearby residential area to assess the education situation of drop-out students. The survey included more than 40 students and focused on key aspects such as their educational background, lack of access to resources, socioeconomic factors, support systems, awareness, and counseling.

The survey aimed to understand the reasons behind students dropping out of school and identify potential solutions to address the issue. Volunteers collected data on the students' previous educational experiences, including the level of education completed and any significant challenges they faced.

One of the main findings of the survey was the lack of access to resources, which included limited or inadequate learning materials, insufficient teaching staff, and outdated infrastructure. These factors contributed to a less conducive learning environment and increased the likelihood of students dropping out. Based on the survey findings, recommendations were made to improve the educational outcomes of drop-out students. These included enhancing access to educational resources, addressing socioeconomic barriers, strengthening support systems, and promoting awareness and counseling services.

Seminar on “Traffic Control and Horn not OK”

Summary Report

Date: 18/01/2020

Venue: Classroom 208

Participants: 135

The seminar on Traffic Control and Horn not OK was organized by the NSS Unit of SST College. The speaker, Sr. Police inspector Ulhasnagar police station Division, spoke about the importance of traffic control and the dangers of using a horn unnecessarily.

The speaker began by talking about the different types of traffic control devices and how they are used to keep traffic moving safely. He then talked about the importance of following traffic rules and regulations. He also talked about the dangers of using a horn unnecessarily.

The speaker said that using a horn unnecessarily can startle other drivers and pedestrians, which can lead to accidents. He also said that using a horn unnecessarily can be a form of noise pollution.

The speaker concluded by urging the NSS volunteers to be safe on the roads and to follow traffic rules and regulations. He also urged them to educate others about the dangers of using a horn unnecessarily.

The seminar on Traffic Control and Horn not OK was a valuable learning experience for the NSS volunteers. The speaker provided them with important information about traffic safety and the dangers of using a horn unnecessarily. The NSS volunteers are now better equipped to be safe on the roads and to educate others about traffic safety.
