Tree Plantation

The NSS unit of S.S.T College of Arts and Commerce in Ulhasnagar orchestrated a noteworthy Tree Plantation program in collaboration with the Forest Department of the Badlapur Region. The event, held on June 15th, 2021, at the Badlapur Forest Region, saw the active participation of 60 dedicated NSS volunteers.

Mr. Sakharam Rathod, the Officer Representative from the Forest Department's Badlapur Region, played a pivotal role in supporting and facilitating the organization of the Tree Plantation Program. His involvement added a professional touch to the event and highlighted the importance of such initiatives for environmental conservation.

The main objective of the program was to contribute to the ecological well-being of the region by planting trees. The NSS volunteers, with their enthusiasm and commitment to environmental sustainability, actively participated in the tree planting process. The involvement of Mr. Sakharam Rathod, along with the participation of 60 NSS volunteers, showcased a strong commitment to sustainable practices and the betterment of the local ecosystem. This event stands as a testament to the power of collective action in fostering positive change for the environment.

Covid – 19 Test Drive

In a collaborative effort with Central Hospital, Ulhasnagar-3, the NSS Unit of SST College of Arts and Commerce organized a COVID-19 Test Drive aimed at serving the local residents and college students. This initiative was designed to provide easy access to COVID-19 testing and encourage a proactive approach to community health. The event witnessed enthusiastic participation from both residents and college community members. The initiative's success is measured not only by the number of tests conducted but also by the sense of unity it fostered among residents and college members. Such endeavors underscore the importance of collective efforts in combating the pandemic and serve as a model for future community-driven health initiatives.

Disaster Management

The programme began with the welcome speech by Founder Principal J.C Purwani delivered the opening address where she rightly pointed out that before helping others we must be trained to handle any difficult situation of disaster. The need for post disaster management and the need to put into practice the training become very important.

Mr. Bhupender mishra gave an introductory speech where she stressed the need for each individual to be well equipped to deal with the disaster. According to him, the policy of self-help and to help other affected rather than depend on government machinery agencies must be followed as these machinery are slow to react due to procedural delays.

He also pointed out that government machinery is often insufficient in the rescue, recovery, rehabilitation and reconstruction process, as they cannot reach each and every affected person. He underscored the need to imbibe the culture of preparedness every single day. She also reiterated that in any hazard focus on 3 Rs – Relief, Rehabilitation and Reconstruction .sufficient, rather preparedness of any kind of disaster is a must to prevent the hazard from becoming

Gender Equality

Ms. Pallavi Palav delivered a lecture on the topic Gender Equality: Issues and Challenges during Covid 19 Circumstances. She started the session by introducing Gender equality as a phenomenon that recognizes the need of both males and females and addresses them. Then she continued by sharing that the limit gains that were achieved over the decade were affected during the pandemic of Covid-19. Covid-19 emerged not only as a medical emergency but also has socio-economic effects all around the world.

Ms. Pallavi Palav pointed out that this crisis has exposed every sector to the economic whiplash but the major sectors that were hit the worst during the Covid-19 induced lockdown are, travel, accommodation and food, real estate, wholesale and retail, business and manufacturing. Women are more associated with all these sectors that resulted in women to more likely be affected socio-economically during the pandemic.

Tribute to Our Martyr's Soldiers of Pulwama Attack

Mr. Jeevan Vichare said that the entire nation was heartbroken on February 13, 2019 when 40 valiant Indian soldiers were martyred in a cowardly suicide bomb attack. On 14th February 2022, the nation is observing the third anniversary of the terror attack and remembering the supreme sacrifice of the 40 brave men of CRPF who attained martyrdom in Pulwama.

The Teachers and students who were present on this day to give tribute to those soldiers. The audience of over 40 youth NSS Volunteers also attended the event. The event started with lighting the Lamp in remembrance of the martyrs, followed by two minutes of silence. Various volunteer youth performed and displayed their talent on stage including a patriotic song and an eye-opener speech. The event came to a close with the National Anthem sung by all.

University Level 7 Days Residential Camp

The University Level Special Camp held from March 20th to March 26th, 2022, witnessed an array of enriching experiences and activities. The camp aimed at fostering teamwork, personal growth, and awareness among 172 participants from diverse backgrounds. The opening day commenced with efficient management preparations and the arrival of the Sindhudurg Team. Registrations, room allocation, and orientation followed. The campers were introduced to the inauguration function featuring the Chairman and Founder Principal of SST College as the Chief Guest. In the ensuing days, sessions on street play creation, yoga, and talks on various topics like Digital India, Indian Independence, and women empowerment were conducted. The participants actively engaged in group tasks like kitchen and premises cleaning, showcasing unity and shared responsibility.

The impact of sessions addressing social stigmas and youth's contribution to society resonated deeply. The camp also focused on physical activities like jogging and self-defense, inculcating discipline and fitness. As the days progressed, emotional bonds grew stronger, and participants geared up for the final cultural activities. The valedictory function brought recognition to exceptional volunteers and marked an emotional farewell.

The camp's success was a culmination of dedicated planning, visionary leadership, and enthusiastic participation. The event not only promoted learning and awareness but also served as a platform for new friendships and personal growth, leaving an indelible impact on all involved..
