

SST COLLEGE CELEBRATES OUTSTANDING ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENTS

The shining stars of SST College who secured top positions in university exams.

Students of SST College have achieved outstanding success in the recent university examinations, reinforcing the institution's reputation for academic excellence. Renowned for their achievements in arts, sports, cultural, and social activities, the students have now added another feather to their cap with stellar academic performances.

In the MSc (Computer Science) examination, Ramsha Bano emerged as the topper with an impressive CGPA of 8.82. Meanwhile, B.Sc. (IT) student Abhijeet Ingle secured a remarkable 9.90 CGPA, earning the fifth position out of approximately 8,400 B.Sc. (IT) students from Mumbai University. Rasika Kolhe also made the college proud by scoring 9.83 CGPA, securing the ninth rank.

Students from other academic streams of SST College have also demonstrated exceptional performance in the examinations, contributing to the institution's growing academic accolades.

Responding to their success, the students credited the state-of-the-art academic facilities provided by the college, including a well-equipped computer lab, a resourceful library with e-learning tools, and the dedicated guidance of their professors.

Dr. Purswani, Founder Principal of SST College, expressed his delight at the students' achievements. Congratulating them, he emphasized the college's commitment to providing quality education and vowed to continue fostering an environment that nurtures excellence and prepares students for future success.

These accomplishments reflect SST College's ongoing efforts to remain a leading institution in academic and holistic development.

COMMERCE DEPARTMENT HOSTS FLASH TALK COMPETITION TO BOOST STUDENTS CONFIDENCE AND COMMUNICATION SKILLS

Students confidently presents their thoughts during the Flash Talk Competition; Asst. Prof. Reena Mishra engaging the audience with insightful ideas.

In a bid to promote overall student development, the Commerce Department at SST College organized an engaging Flash Talk Competition. The competition was designed to give students a platform to enhance their communication skills, build confidence, and express their opinions on various contemporary issues.

The event saw enthusiastic participation from students who presented their views on a range of topics, including entrepreneurship, social media, and mental health. "The Flash Talk competition helped me refine my speaking skills while sharing my thoughts on a topic I'm passionate about — entrepreneurship," said Ananya Sharma, a student participant. "It was a great opportunity to express my opinions in front of an audience and boost my confidence."

In addition to entrepreneurship, students also explored the impact of social media on society and discussed mental health issues that are becoming increasingly important in today's world. "Social media has a huge influence on our lives, and it was interesting to hear the diverse perspectives on its effects, both positive and negative," shared Aakash Patel, another participant.

The event not only gave students a chance to speak on current issues but also encouraged critical thinking and effective communication. Dr. Santosh Karmani, Head of the Commerce Department, stated, "At SST College, we believe in nurturing not just academic knowledge but also the personal and professional skills of our students. This competition was an excellent way to enhance their public speaking abilities and encourage them to think critically about the world around them."

The competition was well-received by both students and faculty, with participants showcasing their ability to articulate their thoughts under time constraints. The winners were awarded certificates, and all participants received valuable feedback to help them improve their presentation and communication skills further.

STUDENT COUNCIL LEADS THE WAY IN CONSUMER RIGHTS AWARENESS

TV Fame Shivaji Satam Encourages Students to Know Their Consumer Rights & Motivates them to Make Informed Decisions.

In a significant step toward promoting consumer education, an online Consumer Awareness Program was organized in collaboration with the Consumer Guidance Society of India (CGSI) and the Telecom Regulatory Authority of India (TRAI). The program aimed to empower students by educating them about their consumer rights and responsibilities, along with the measures available to protect them against unfair practices.

The event covered a range of topics, including the importance of understanding consumer rights, grievance redressal mechanisms, and the role of regulatory bodies in safeguarding consumers. Expert speakers from CGSI and TRAI conducted interactive sessions, sharing real-life examples and case studies to make the learning more engaging and practical.

Students also learned how to identify misleading advertisements, avoid online fraud, and effectively use helplines like the National Consumer Helpline (NCH). Additionally, they were introduced to the latest updates in telecom regulations, ensuring they stay informed about services and tariffs.

The Student Council played a pivotal role in coordinating the event and encouraging participation among peers. Their active involvement underscored their dedication to creating a well-informed student community capable of making smart consumer choices.

The program concluded with a Q&A session, allowing students to clarify doubts and share their perspectives. The initiative was well-received and is expected to pave the way for more such awareness programs in the future.
